Tom Cormack
Executive Secretary

History Staff Bi-Weekly

STAT [ ] request for the Berlin Tunnel history has been STAT approved by the DDO and we are preparing to send it to him. We have also STAT had a preliminary request from IAD for one volume of the [ ] STAT history and are waiting for the DDO release. In this instance, the STAT requester is the author of the study who wants to refresh his memory on some STAT points. We do not have the [ ] history that was the object of STAT another telephone request from Headquarters.

STAT [ ] has completed her audit of top secret documents, locating all of STAT them. She has made an appointment with IMS for a spot check exercise and STAT for arranging formal transfer of the TS documents Jack took with him.

The flap involving the unorthodox arrival at the Army's Center for Military History of CIA documents from the Eisenhower Library forwarded by the History Staff has been checked out and resolved by an Army Special Agent.

STAT Don has received some material, including an oral history interview
STAT with Richard Bissell, from the Eisenhower Library. While making STAT arrangements for his own request, he volunteered to pass on to [ ]
STAT some declassification action on Agency documents and to contact [ ] STAT the DDS&T RMO, about some documents requested by a private writer via the STAT Eisenhower Library.

Bob had an interview yesterday with Dave Phillips in connection with his chapter on Chile. John Bross told Ken he had discussed with Mr. Casey the idea of reinstating Bob's congressional study.

Our biographic handbook on the DCIs and DDCIs was sent to the printers this week.

Diane plans to return to work on a halftime basis next week. Don will be on annual leave for the next two weeks.
